Hi Judy,

Thanks for taking a few minutes to talk and share your thoughts on the BDS resolution. I'm sorry I didn't have too much information on this proposal, but IF it's on the agenda, you will be able to see it at 5:00 this Thursday. You can go to the Cambridge Open Meeting Portal here to view the Council agenda: https://cambridgema.iqm2.com/Citizens/Default.aspx

If the item is scheduled and you'd like your comments to be public, you can email the City Council at citycouncil@cambridgema.gov and copy the Clerk at clerk@cambridgema.gov to have written comments entered into the record.

If you want to speak at public comment at the Council meeting, that will begin at 5:30 on Monday. You can sign up beforehand by calling the City Council office between 9:00-3:00pm on the day of the meeting at (617)349-4280, or following this link after the agenda becomes public and online sign up opens: https://www.cambridgema.gov/Departments/citycouncil/publiccommentsignupform

If you have any more questions, please call or email me!

Sincerely,

Liana Ascolese
